

foe, tht* standing enemies* of the Crown and the Hourco of Its ultimate downfall. I'or thirty years ut Iwust they had to lx»w thttir neek.s lo tht* yoke.
 They were deprived of erimtnal junsdietkm, for-bidden to carry on private war on pain of eaj)» itnl penalties, such privilege* a« they Iwul obtained Kinee thtt death of William II. wen* earefully «eru-tinimid, they wen' forbidden to riirry wimjionii or erect t'imlleii, all but the highest feutiatusnoi were brought under the jurisidttctm «>C the Master JutttcinrH, whwitt dire no prrlat«, count, tMunon, or knight might exereise. The tlrting hand faKtrned uj»n the Churv.li; u tncirUnnin aet thhnetel the iicF|uitdtion of vawat*)Ancb by eelintiasien, the Church courto were forintldim l« juri»*

diction over lay mem, the jm»|^fty of was put into the httmfatrf rftytil
 , The citifm and townu of tlie kingdom ha«I during the intcrrrtnium r«*overt«! i»ower*i whkli they had not enjoyed »na« th« dtty*-» «f llw Apitlkn
 dukeM, and Frederick htmtwlf hncl thought it politic enrly in iiti reign Ui prtviiegw to ttcverol of them, Hut at Mttlfi in uji another note wa» tioundrtl: heuoefortlt no tnwn ntight mt up ixxttttit, wrUffi «r art ptiin of laid waste. Napif»» Atitaift, forth to huve iwi llit Kttii*ti Clft6tn lont her ctm&iils, the rwyitl fioHcy to bring all IttW'fipjjob tin* to the Curia. Tho kani »urvivtttl in tl» «f HuiltlliTfl